1-Sentence Summary:

- A wind demon, resurrected and possessed by four angelic lions, seeks to win his freedom by preventing the coming of a world ravishing storm.

Story Premise:

- Seda: Heir of Lies is ultimately a story about striving to find your purpose in life. The main character of the story has resigned himself to the winds of fate in both his current and previous lives and the destructive patterns of helplessness remain unbroken until, with clarity and courage, he can strike out to understand himself and create his own path.

Story Synopsis:

- Act I
  - (Introduction) Math, a powerful wind demon sealed away in the corpse of a human 15 years ago, is resurrected and possessed by four angelic beings—the “Angel Lions”—that bid him to prevent the summoning of a malevolent, storm—the “Konogami”—,which will cause significant destruction by unbalancing the world of Seda.
  - (1st Disaster) Math, being the deviant spirit he is, refuses and decides instead to take advantage of his revival to seek out amusement. While he is mildly annoyed by the Angel Lions who continue to implore his aid, Math manages to ignore them and have his way until he is confronted by a mercenary legion of demons beings who have been sent to destroy the Angel Lions, and him along with them. Finding that he cannot use his powers to defend himself without the Angel Lion’s grace, Math makes a pact with them to help prevent the coming of the Konogami in exchange for his powers and eventually his freedom.
- Act II- III
